Celebrate the Garden Workshop

Daylilies-From Species to Now
Wednesday July 12 2006 1-4pm

As part of the 2006 celebration of the 25th anniversary of the Historic Gardens, the Town of Annapolis Royal is hosting its fourth workshop.

A look at the family from the delicate graceful forms of the species, the familiar lemon and orange lilies of old gardens, to the ruffled beauties of today. These plants offer a long season of bloom and an increasingly rich palette of colours, forms and sizes. Lorraine Beswick has been sharing her love of flowers for many years as a passionate gardener, floral designer and teacher. The workshop will begin at the Interpretive Centre within the Historic Gardens. The workshop fee is $35.00 and includes admission to the Gardens. Pre-registration required at the Annapolis Royal Town Hall 532-2043.

All you need to do is contact Jackie at Town Hall and get set up with your own user-id, password and instructions. Then you can list your events on the calendar and immediately they will show on our website.
