Harvest Pantry Sale

The Ladies' Auxiliary of the Annapolis Royal Fire Department will be collecting donations for their Harvest Pantry Sale. Items of baked goods, preserves or pickles can be dropped off at the fire department. The sale will take place on Saturday October 14th from 9am-2pm. Come out and support this good cause.

Explorer Deadlines

The deadline for ads to be received for the 2007 EXPLORER Visitors' Guide is October 27. Thanks to outstanding co-op participation since its inception in 1995, this popular publication is enjoyed by tourists and residents alike. With the addition of the new Internet Edition in 2006, businesses are now also able to reach prospective visitors while they are in their important initial vacation planning process. To reserve your ad, or for additional information, please contact Durline Melanson at 532-3034 or explorer@ns.sympatico.ca. Ad sizes and spaces are limited, so call today.

Ecumenical Fall Fair

On Saturday, November 4th, from 11:30 to 1:30, the Ecumenical Fall Fair will be held at the Annapolis Royal Fire Hall. Admission to the sale is free, but a donation to the local food bank would be appreciated. The lunch menu is chicken soup or chili and assorted desserts for $7.00.

Tourism Destination Area Committee

This committee has completed a self assessment of our tourism situation and plans to release its report to the public soon.

Recreation Fall Programs

There is still time to join one of our many fall recreational programs. You can check out the list on our website www.annapolisroyal.com/recreation.php or contact Grant Potter at 532-7667.

Fall Decorating

The Town Hall has taken advantage of the flower barrels and decorated them for the fall season. The decorating has been done on a trial basis to add a touch of colour through the next season. If the barrels remain intact and are not destroyed, then next year, we will increase the number and locations. Hopefully, everyone will enjoy the fall colours of the season as they walk down St George Street.

St George & St Andrew United Church Concert October 22nd 7pm

Elizabeth (Sheperd) Deveau will be putting on a concert of Christian music at the St George & St Andrew United Church Sunday October 22nd at 7pm. A free will offering would be appreciated to help raise funds for the new roof. Elizabeth Deveau will be selling a new CD that she has recently released. Everyone welcome.

Regional Development Authority

The search for a Managing Director for a new RDA came to a stop when it was determined that funding for a new RDA from the Province has not yet been confirmed. The Town continues to work with its five other municipal partners to try to keep the process moving.
